

After Economy of Francesco

- 2 online meetings held with participants from different countries (Argentina, Italy, Malta, Panama, Spain and others)
- Mgr Domenico Sorrentino, bishop of Assisi and member of EoF organization committee, challenged us during both meetings focusing on:
  - a) Centrality of person
  - b) Economics and ethics link
  - c) Society and politics
  - d) Blessed Giuseppe Toniolo's profile
- Building relationships and networking between EoF participants from different countries with Catholic Action's background
- Sharing personal experience in EoF

After Economy of Francesco (cont.)

- Sharing of some good practices:

- a) Argentina – a open-access online course organized by Instituto de Formación Política y Social on EoF topics
- b) Italy - focus on sustainability reporting as part of annual report; active involvement of Youth Catholic Action members in EoF regional hubs
- c) Malta - focus on environmental issues (ZAK) with beach clean-ups and ban of single-use plastic; attention to social challenges (AKM, ZAK and Segretary of Social Assistance) with 3 social projects

What to do next?

- Enhancing relationships between EoF participants
- Identify how EoF's participants can contribute to FIAC and our national associations
