

WITNESSES LIST

Short presentation

Rafael Corso, Coordinator IFCA Secretariat

We continue our meeting in the company of some Witnesses among the many that the Pius XI Catholic Action School of Holiness Foundation is collecting from the many CAs in the world so that they may support our commitment today, in the communion of saints we know who preceded us by their example. Pope Francis recalled this on Saturday 29th October when he met the young people of Italian Catholic Action and ideally all of us:

Young believers, responsible and credible: this I wish you. (...) these words are embodied in the saints, in the young saints! The Mother Church offers us many of them ... They teach us what it means to be leaven, to be in the world, not of the world. Pier Giorgio Frassati was an active and enthusiastic member of Italian Catholic Action, (...) he shows how one can be a credible, responsible young believer, a happy, smiling believer.

With this in mind, let us pray in the company of these witnesses of holiness, men women, young people and adults from so many countries, artisans of peace, some in situations of conflict, some martyrs of persecution, some like so many next door saints, building peace every day in their parishes, in their workplaces in fidelity to the Gospel, witnesses of merciful love, without reserves and without borders, walking next to the poor!

For this part (we use the FPIOXI website and open the page corresponding to each witness - we invite you to visit the site, to send your comments, to indicate other witnesses)
